Synopsis: Little House on the Ferry is, at its club beating heart, a love story. It follows a group of friends in a share house one early summer weekend. At the center of the story is Randall who is looking to take his relationship with his older boyfriend Timothy to the next level. Joining them at the house is Donnie, the doting and wise House Mom, the ever-popular Max the muscle boy (played by Colton Ford), and their wide-eyed house guest Antonio. When Randall's old flame, Jake, turns up, hilarity and drama ensues. In the world of passionate affairs, meat racks, pain and vanity, what does it mean to be in love? Between Tea and sunrise, we might just find out with our Little House on the Ferry.
